PREFACE

We are the angelic messengers for God referred to as Michael the Archangel. While numerous contributing energies are collaborating to produce this book, we are conscious of our Oneness and therefore require no individual recognition.

We are the voice of God to all of humanity speaking through one who has agreed to be the channel through which this information can be presented to the children of the earth. Our message is urgent because the time has come for all who wish to evolve into a higher consciousness to prepare for the arrival of a more intense energy force that will be sent to your planet soon. It is essential that all those who are desirous of awakening at this extraordinary moment in the evolution of human consciousness be aware of what is to occur and make the necessary preparations as we will instruct you in this book.

It is our intention to assist you and protect you; however, you must choose to evolve and also work with us as much as possible. The more of you committed to this extraordinary opportunity for humanity, the more we can accomplish together; and rather than extreme trauma and fear, you will experience the love and joy of awakening and remembering your Oneness with God and your individual Divinity. The waste and selfishness will be as a dream and so you will no longer sleep, but will see that you are all God in individual form.

The primary purpose of this book to focus on the specific information relative to your basic understanding and need for preparation rather than the precise and explicit details with regard to particular events. We do not want to overwhelm you here, but rather present the essential critical information for you to utilize and contemplate immediately. This is to be considered more of an emergency guidebook for you. The information and instructions will be kept short and to the point so you will not get bogged down in religious or philosophical concerns and debate but rather focus your efforts and attention on the emergency at hand.

We understand that the majority of you will have difficulty not only comprehending what we must convey to you but accepting it as well. The circumstances with regard to your natural spiritual evolutionary cycle have changed dramatically and so we must immediately make the attempt to educate you. Although it may seem beyond your current capacity to completely understand us, it is imperative that you make the effort to open your consciousness to receive the spiritual impulses that will help you. Sit quietly and contemplate all that will be presented so that its meaning can be comprehended and your level of consciousness can be lifted.

Simply defined, mortality is the quality or state of being mortal. This is the human race at its current level of consciousness or awareness. Man is considered “mortal” and therefore inevitably subject to death. You have lived with this belief and state of consciousness since “time” began in your experience on the earth plane. Because of the circumstances detailed in this book, humanity is about to experience a quantum leap in consciousness. This event will be “The Death of Mortality” and the birth of “Immortality” if you so choose. The enormity and spiritual relevance of this, what has been called “The Great Awakening” or “The Second Coming”, is currently beyond your comprehension. Rest assured that it is monumental and eagerly awaited by your Universal spiritual brothers and sisters, whom you will recognize and with whom you will joyfully celebrate your release from the prison of “mortal mind” and the endless cycles of birth and death.

The trumpet has sounded. The call is urgent and the time to prepare is NOW. Saint or sinner, it matters not. You are ALL loved immeasurably. Choose to awaken and know that we have been ordained by God to serve you and guide you. We are honored and blessed to do so.

NOTE: Inasmuch as God is neither male nor female, because of the limitations of language we have chosen to refer to God using the image of “father” as referenced by Jesus throughout your Bible. Therefore, the pronoun “He” or “His” must be understood in this context and not in any way to indicate that God is male. Gender does not apply to God and we could have also used the image of “mother”. You may substitute accordingly. This decision was necessary for ease in not only the writing, but the reading of this book.

AWAKEN TO YOUR DIVINE IDENTITY

The time has come for human beings to awaken to their true identity, to “put off mortality and be clothed in immortality” and to know that all are Divine Beings...God expressing Itself in individual form. This awareness has been lost since “time” began for the human race. Before “a deep sleep fell upon Adam”, as recorded in your Bible, human beings experienced the earth plane in a continuous state of joy, awe, wonder and above all peace. You must understand that “Adam” refers to all of humanity and not an individual as many have been erroneously taught.

Fear was nonexistent since human beings knew they were of God. There was no birth and no death. They were eternal beings and they experienced the bliss of God’s love for His Sons. This is the state of consciousness referred to in the Bible as “The Garden of Eden”. It is life experienced as God intended for Itself. With conscious awareness of their Oneness with God, human beings were aware of their True Nature as Spiritual Beings, individual Selves of God experiencing life on a plane of consciousness where God’s “ideas” or creations became manifested as form. Thus, the Creator was able to experience the infinite, ever changing, ever wondrous creations emanating from Itself, Its Divine Mind.

Your scientists have recently revealed the fact that what you perceive as solid is in your reality energy vibrating at various rates. Matter now appears to be made up of the “stuff” or essence of Mind. Inasmuch as your mind IS the Mind of God, you are still functioning according to Divine Law, that is as both the Idea and the individual experiencing the Idea. However, and this is extremely important for you to understand, you have lost conscious awareness of the Reality of being and have been trapped in a world that can at best be described as “not real”, illusory, a mirage. It is essential that you begin to grasp this Truth! The mind and ideas which you are experiencing collectively are NOT of God and therefore have no external reality. “Adam”, humanity, is STILL ASLEEP and essentially dreaming its experiences. Ponder this statement as the human mind simply cannot grasp it and yet it MUST become a part of your conscious awareness now. We will attempt to explain how and why this became your experience and the urgent need for you to begin the process of expanding and lifting your consciousness from that of human to that of Divine. Your Bible describes God’s true spiritual “idea” of creation in the first chapter of Genesis. The second chapter of Genesis describes a second creation, a material creation which is the “manifestation” of the third dimension referred to as the earth plane. As we stated above, God willed to EXPERIENCE Itself and thus created a vibratory field, the infinite Universe, containing numerous spheres or planes for the purpose of manifesting these Ideas. God then projected Itself in the form of individual Selves into these planes. We quote Genesis 1:27: “So God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them.” We repeat, you originally knew you were God made manifest perfectly and that you were unconditionally loved, maintained and sustained by that Source while experiencing life on earth.

Let us now attempt to address the question you must surely have and that is “If God’s Creation is perfect, what happened to me and why am I experiencing pain, suffering, fear and imperfection?” Remember what we told you above. You have never been other than God’s perfect Son. Your true higher Self is aware of this Truth and wills to once again communicate with you so that you realize your true identity as this Self in physical form. You are multi-dimensional Spiritual Beings, not human beings. This may sound shocking to hear but it is true nonetheless. God never created a human being! He created you in HIS image and likeness and we assure you it is not human. God is infinite, invisible Spirit and so are you in Reality. The highly relevant portions of scripture which would have helped you understand the “deep sleep” which fell upon humanity were intentionally deleted by those who have assumed power and control of the earth plane in order to keep you uninformed, unquestioning and accepting of the lie that God created human beings with bodies that are born and die.

We will attempt to clarify this further so you may hopefully begin to understand that what you experience as life and “external reality” is nothing more than a constant projection of mental images on the “screen” or fabric of your current level of consciousness. Through the mental concepts and constructs of “time” and “space” and through the use of your physical body and its senses, which were designed to interpret “this world”, these mental images appear solid, external, separate from you and more importantly, REAL. They are not. The human body and the human mind are nothing more than devices you utilize in order to experience a life separate and apart from God and God’s Creation...Reality. It was originally your choice to do so as we will explain.

The Bible tells a story of The Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. This “Tree” is symbolic of the belief in two powers; not the One Power, God/Good, which is the Truth, but the lie that there is a second power, Evil. Representative of the collective feminine aspect of humanity, “Eve” is tempted, or more accurately stated “convinced”, to believe the lie and allows into human consciousness “knowledge of good and evil”...belief now in TWO powers or a power separate and apart from God which therefore can only be His opposite, Evil. She is supposedly tempted by a “serpent”.

The truth behind this symbolic analogy is that one of God’s beloved Sons, Lucifer, rebelled against Him, willed to usurp God and set up his own Creation. Lucifer is the Biblical symbolic “serpent”. He and all of God’s Sons were given free will and could choose to experience the impossible if they so desired. You cannot begin to imagine the loving effort made to convince you to stay true to your original Divine heritage! Nevertheless, countless Sons defected and willed to experience a life and selfhood separate and apart from God. Though this is utterly impossible in Reality, it is possible to accept it into your consciousness, symbolized by the “eating” or ingesting of the “apple” the “idea”. Since an idea never leaves its source, an illusory world based on this idea was projected or manifested. This is the world you are currently experiencing and have been experiencing for eons. It is a lie, a mind-projected mirage which allows you to experience the impossible, a selfhood apart from God. Looking at this world today, you can surely agree that if God created such a world, He must be heartless and cruel. However, God, Good, is All That Is and has no opposite! Nevertheless, once you agreed to join the original rebelling Son, Lucifer, you became “unconscious” of your true nature, the Allness and Oneness of God and His Creation and descended into an extremely lower state of consciousness. This is the “deep sleep” to which the Bible is referring. Your religions have termed it “The Fall of Man”, the “Original Sin”, “The Separation”.

The adulterated Biblical scripture would have you believe that God is responsible for your having been “evicted” from the Garden of Eden. This was intentionally done to set up the concept of an angry and wrathful God capable of judging and punishing his erring children and thus make you extremely fearful of God. Knowing your fear would keep you from turning back to God, Lucifer was then able to set himself up as “god” of this world and you have been under his hypnotic and lower vibratory influence...his mind rather than Divine Mind. This influence has convinced you that you are sinful, lowly beings that must now spend eternity appeasing God and that by learning to lead “good” lives, you will be forgiven and return to God and “Heaven” upon your physical death. This is utter nonsense, but has worked wonderfully for Lucifer. Be assured however, his reign is over and his influence is diminishing rapidly.

Many of your religions have taught that God had one Son. This is true; however, they neglected to teach you that the one Son expresses as EVERY individual and was not just the man named Jesus. Jesus was the human form through which the Son of God was most fully expressed. Jesus taught that you should KNOW THE TRUTH and the Truth shall set you free. Set you free from what? Jesus is implying you are imprisoned and we assure you he is correct. You are imprisoned in a mind-projected illusory world that thankfully is about to end for those of you who choose to return to your original Divine state of Being.

Once Jesus incarnated and set up the higher vibratory pattern for the now imprisoned “fallen” Sons to overcome death and ascend as He did, your salvation and return to your Divine state of Being, Divine Mind, was assured. This accomplishment on the part of Jesus was so loving and monumental that you will forever regard him as your “Savior”, which indeed He is! The time has come for you to return, to awaken and ascend as Jesus did. Still, having been endowed with free will, you must choose. If you choose to ascend and evolve into your original higher consciousness, you will. Many of you speak of a “Second Coming”. Jesus’ incarnation was considered the “First” and your choosing to evolve and experience your spiritual rebirth will be the “Second”. Understand, however, that even though Lucifer has been defeated by Jesus’ overcoming “this world”, he still intends to unleash every evil at his command to keep you enslaved.

In this desperate last attempt to keep you imprisoned and maintain his reign, Lucifer is acting in concert with those loyal to him and those in power now who control the world to deliberately and intentionally set in motion the chaos sweeping the earth. Many of you who are at last beginning to respond to our influence and are awakening simply cannot make sense of the needless suffering, poverty, diseases, war and violence occurring now. It seems so “over the top” that you are no longer accepting these experiences as a normal process of human life and are attempting to intervene. While your human efforts to alleviate the suffering of so many are honorable, they will always fall short of solving the dire problems that are now enveloping the world. In their desperation, those in power are willing to actually sacrifice the world in order to stay in control. This is insanity!

You no longer have the luxury of “time” to continue living imprisoned in such ignorance. How much more suffering will you endure to hold onto a false concept of yourselves, God and God’s creation? How long should this charade continue? You have managed to put yourselves on the brink of extinction and unless you immediately begin to embrace your true identity and utilize that knowledge to raise your level of consciousness from that of a mere hapless, helpless human to that of a Divine Child of God, what is soon to occur on your planet will be not only be traumatic for the mass of humanity, but frightening as well. It is our purpose to work with you so that it is not.

By now the majority of you have seen the impotence, stupidity and greed of governments around the globe. We have been intentionally exposing this truth not to shock you, although most of you have intuitively known this for quite sometime; but rather to inspire you to place your faith where it truly belongs...in your Self! Your major religions have been negatively influenced as well. Scandals and corruption have invaded the very institutions you have looked to for protection and salvation. Who can you turn to now? Who will save you when more and more turmoil and chaos ensues as it surely will?

The time has come for you to accept that there is absolutely no material force, no external force, institution or agency that can guarantee your survival and future on this planet. The same force you would use to defend life is the very same force which will destroy it. YOU HAVE NOW COME TO THE END OF LIFE LIVED ACCORDING TO HUMAN CONSCIOUSNESS. Now you must choose to evolve. You MUST rise to a higher level of consciousness and awaken to your spiritual identity! This requires you to no longer place your reliance on effect, but rather turn within and acknowledge Cause, God, as your Source, your Life and most importantly, your Self. This is the Truth that will set you free to which Jesus was referring. Let the Divine within you replace the limited and fearful human self, the false self, the ego self that experiences life as a body, separate and apart from not only God, but other bodies as well. Be willing to embrace your Oneness with God and every individual. Only then can you experience the quantum transformation which is to occur. Only then can you fully awaken from this nightmare and see the world that truly exists, the blissful world of God's Creation.

God in His infinite love and mercy has assigned us the task of communicating the urgency of your current situation and what steps you must take to eliminate fear and prepare yourselves for the extraordinary light and energy that will soon impact the earth. This communication is not meant to frighten you but to assist you in what is in reality a tremendous blessing and a joyful moment for humanity. The nightmare of death, disease, poverty, waste, greed, selfishness and war is about to end. For too long you have accepted these abominations as a fact of "Life". It is no wonder so many of you are in a complete state of confusion as to whether there even IS a God; and if there is, what God would allow his children to suffer so!

As we have stated, your current experience has nothing to do with reality or Life as God created it. Therefore, how can God do anything about that which doesn't exist?? You MUST make the extraordinary effort to begin to accept into your consciousness the Truth that what you are currently experiencing is all illusion. However, be assured that God is aware that his children are dreaming and that the dream is now so terrifying the majority of you truly want to awaken! This God can and will do. This event is coming very soon. It has been alluded to in many of your various religious and spiritual teachings. Judaism awaits The Messiah, Christianity awaits The Second Coming of Christ or The Rapture, Islamism awaits The Prophet Mohammed and so on. We do not wish to discuss particular religious beliefs, but to point out that the overall implication is that of a Divine savior and human salvation. In Truth, all are equal, all are One, all are God in individual form and as such, all will have the opportunity to Awaken to their Divinity regardless of any religious beliefs or non-beliefs. You do not have to accept the teachings of any religion since you will experience communion with God directly within your own being.

THE HYPNOTIC INFLUENCE OF MORTAL MIND

We repeat that you must understand that you have been experiencing “life” not as an expression of Divine Mind (God), but rather under a false, hypnotic influence emanating from a mind separate and apart from God. We refer to this as “mortal mind”.

God is forever trying to communicate once again with his “sleeping” children. Those of you who were able to respond to a lesser extent than your spiritual Masters have translated these spiritual impulses into art forms that hint at Truth. Through these artistic venues, the concepts of your world as illusion are being presented to the masses. While most of you consider these as more or less “entertainment”, they have served to inspire many to contemplate and question what is “real”. We will use just two examples here. One is the film entitled “The Matrix”. It would benefit you to watch it in light of what we are presenting in this book. The other example would be your television series and later movies of Star Trek. More specifically, those episodes which revolved around the concept of a “holodeck”, a holographic projection of a time and place where the characters could enter and experience that particular period or event. They were conscious that the world they were experiencing was illusory and that they would always be safe and unharmed. Does this sound reminiscent of life in the “Garden of Eden” state of consciousness? Can you possibly accept that perhaps you are experiencing life in an illusory mind-projected world, one that is unreal and yet experienced as real since you no longer remember who you are in Reality? Please contemplate this. As we told you, much of what is written in this book will be incomprehensible to human consciousness, one that believes in and is controlled by mortal mind. However, through Silent Prayer, which we will discuss in greater detail, you can access that part of your consciousness that remembers the Truth and will help you awaken to your true Identity.

Observing human behavior around the world today, you must surely agree that it appears that humanity has gone “mad” and this incomprehensible behavior has you not only confused as to how it is even possible, but terrified as well. How is it possible for people to be convinced to make themselves into “human bombs” and kill other humans? How is it possible for people in positions of power to sit back and watch as millions die from starvation and tainted water sources? How is it possible for people to have knowledge of physical health laws and yet transgress those laws by excessively ingesting drugs, nicotine, alcohol and most recently food?

While it is true that some people are deliberate in their actions for political or religious reasons, they are nevertheless still operating under a hypnotic suggestion which is convincing them that their actions are justified. However, the majority of people engaging in what appears to be “bad” behavior will admit they feel powerless and seem equally confused and upset by what they are doing not only to their physical bodies, but their loved ones as well. They actually admit to having lost self-control. This experience is puzzling indeed if you are unaware that you are under an impersonal, hypnotic influence encouraging you to behave in a destructive manner.

All of you are familiar with hypnotic demonstrations where a normal person can be hypnotized to behave like a barking dog or a chicken running around the stage. You don’t judge the person because you are fully conscious that the person behaving that way is not the real person and once the hypnotic suggestion is removed and the person is restored to their original state of consciousness, you know they will not remember behaving oddly and will cease to do so. This is precisely what is happening to humanity now. Accept that if you think and behave on the level of human of consciousness, you are under this influence to some extent. Those who are managing self-control are simply not as receptive to the destructive influences being projected. Those who you observe acting in any insane or destructive manner have been completely overtaken by this hypnotic impulse.

Just as you would not judge the person barking like a dog, so too must you resist judging your fellow brothers and sisters who are not only unaware of their hypnotic state but powerless to resist it. In Reality, they are Divine just as you are. Being of God, all are equal and One. The behavior is not the person! Do not condemn those who were overcome by this destructive force acting upon them. See them as they truly are, Divine spiritual children of God, and you will help break the hypnotic spell holding them in bondage to its will, not God’s will. You will be helping to restore them to their right “mind”, Divine Mind. It is essential that you practice this whenever you are tempted to see someone as other than God. It will require enormous effort on your part, but you will be serving us tremendously.

First, you will not be lowering your own vibrations by condemning others but will in fact be raising them in the acknowledgment of God as the Life of everyone. What you put forth from your own consciousness returns to you tenfold. Secondly, there is a good possibility that the person so negatively influenced will respond to your positive thought about them and thus break the hypnotism. What greater service could you give to your spiritual brothers and sisters who are suffering so? It does not require more than your rejection of the illusory appearance and the acceptance of the Truth. This would benefit them far more than any mental institution or rehabilitation facility, which while providing a worthy humanitarian service still sees such persons as “patients” in need of treatment. The Truth is that they are children of God overwhelmed by hypnotic suggestion emanating from “mortal mind”. Please help them to awaken. Reject the human response to judge them as sick or evil and replace it with the spiritual response of Love and Truth.

Your mind acts as a receiver and transmitter of energy (thoughts and ideas) and before the so-called “Separation” or “Fall”, it functioned perfectly in accord with the Mind of God. Therefore, life was experienced perfectly and joyously. You knew that you had access to Infinity and had absolutely no NEEDS. Can you see how wonderful life should be and could be if you were once again restored to your “right Mind”? Can you imagine living without any needs, completely free to share and extend to all for the sheer joy of expressing the infinity of God and God’s ideas. We are reminding you of this once again because you must understand how you have been controlled and manipulated through your mind. In Truth, you have no thoughts of your own. You are simply picking up thought impulses being broadcast through the universal vibratory field and you assume these are “your thoughts and ideas”. Realize that the Mind of God is the only Mind and His Thoughts were meant to be your thoughts. You could then express and experience Divine Mind. However, in your lowered state of consciousness, the majority of you only have the capacity to pick up the lower vibrations being transmitted to your mind, the lower thoughts of “mortal mind”, the mind of Lucifer. You then translate these into your experience under the assumption that they are YOUR THOUGHTS. Understand this so that you can begin to reject the thoughts emanating from this “mortal mind” and once again begin to be receptive to the spiritual impulses, the thoughts, emanating from the Mind of God.

All of you have experienced the endless stream of thoughts, words and ideas that flow unceasingly through your minds. Sit quietly for a moment and observe this phenomena. These are and have been supplanting and blocking the Divine energy... the thoughts, words and ideas emanating from God. All of you are under this hypnotic influence and it is the source of all human suffering. For awhile, many of you were aware of conflicting thoughts and energy impulses and tried to stay in tune with those from God. However, over time you collectively succumbed to the false influence and have been living this way for so long that you believe its projections are the truth about you and the human experience of life. You are now convinced that you are born, subject to disease and all sorts of disasters, must work and earn money to survive, and then hoard as much of it away as possible to ensure the survival and safety of yourselves in old age and thereafter your children when eventually and naturally you must die. How can you possibly think this is what God would want His children to experience? This is not only absurd but hopefully now shocking for you to even read. You need “shock therapy” now because those in control and power intend to destroy your security, put you in a state of fear for your survival, hope you respond insanely and violently and then “rescue” you by instituting marshal law and using military and police force to take control of the masses. They will never relinquish this control and humanity will be forever imprisoned and enslaved. Hard to believe? Well, time is running out and you must be alerted as to what is to come and how to respond.

All of you are now aware of the existence of secretive private military and police forces around the world. Their activities are finally being exposed in order to convince you they are necessary for world order and security as more and more of your legitimate armed forces are engaging in endless wars. Do not be deceived. These militia forces are increasing rapidly. Not only are training centers being built for them, but detention centers are also being constructed at this time. The detention centers are being portrayed as necessary in the event of terrorists attacking you. They are supposedly being built to house these criminals. Do not believe it. When the world spirals out of control, anyone reacting in opposition to governmental authority will be apprehended and imprisoned. Your freedoms will be obsolete under the guise of “national security”. You can already see evidence of this occurring little by little, step by step. As you meekly accept the erosion of what little freedoms you actually do have, those in control will simply be emboldened to carry out their agenda.

Embrace what we have told you as the truth and imagine what would happen if you DID NOT respond insanely and violently as they are predicting when catastrophic events occur! Suppose instead you managed to remain calm and at peace, committed to working together with mutual love and concern for each other. We implore you to do so! Form your Divine Army and work together lovingly. You must evolve out of your self-centered state of consciousness and see all as your Self, Divine. Would this response not thwart the evil intentions of the powerful and allow you time to survive and come together in preparation for your quantum transformation, the Great Awakening? It certainly would.

When you see events unfold that support this scenario we are predicting, remember our admonition to you. Stay calm, be at peace and cooperate with each other. We are here to assist you in ways which will seem like miracles to you but are actually our utilizing of Divine Life Principles, the Principles set forth from God and which hold Creation in perfect harmony and accord. These Principles cannot be altered as they are of God and therefore eternal and unchangeable. They uphold all of Creation. Jesus demonstrated these Principles and longed to teach them to you as well. However, human consciousness was unable to open up to receive and understand these Principles during his time on earth. Now the time is ripe for you to learn and use them and we will help you.

FEAR

We would like to expand further on the fact that you are under a universal hypnotic influence that convinces you that you are unworthy, sinful human beings and that this influence has been blocking the voice of God which is trying to bring to your conscious realization the Truth of who you are.

In Genesis when God was looking for and trying to communicate with Adam (humanity), Adam responds that he hid himself because he was “naked” and afraid. God’s response is “Who told you that you were naked?” Now the word “naked” here must be understood as not meaning “nude” but rather refers to a state of consciousness where suddenly humanity feels “vulnerable” and is no longer experiencing Life under the Divine protection of God. This vulnerability leads humanity to now experience “fear”. You have never lived life in this world without fear and it has become not only acceptable but normal. Think how fear has been and is being used to control you! We ask you again the question God first asked, “Who told you that you were naked?” Who convinced you that you were and still are vulnerable? The mind of Lucifer, mortal mind, is the controlling hypnotic influence and it has infected your mind. Without the use of fear, how could he and those controlling you stay all powerful and godlike in their world, the world of illusion?

As more of humanity is beginning to awaken and once again respond to God’s spiritual impulses, it has become necessary for them to ratchet up the fear factor. If you know this, you can clearly see an explanation for much of what is now occurring in the world of illusion. We understand that you’ve been “asleep” or hypnotized for so long that you still believe this to be the world that God created and many of you will have difficulty accepting that it is not. Some of your awakened Masters and spiritual teachers have discovered this fact and tried to convey it to you. Their writings and ideas are considered “mystical” and therefore out of the realm of human understanding. Jesus, once again, said it clearly, “My Kingdom is not of this world.” Neither is yours. God speaking through the prophet Isaiah (Isaiah 55:8-9) tells you outright, “For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways. For as the heavens (Reality) are higher than the earth (illusion), so are My ways higher than your ways and My thoughts than your thoughts (the hypnotic influence of mortal mind, a mind cut off from God).”

This is why we reiterate that what we are revealing and asking you to now accept into your conscious awareness appears directly opposite of everything you have believed about yourselves, God and Life. YOU CANNOT RECONCILE THE OPPOSITES AND SO ONE MUST BE DISCARDED. When the “deep sleep” fell upon humanity it was because you chose to discard God and experience life separate and apart from your Source. We are asking you to now choose to discard this and once again be restored to your Divine heritage and your conscious awareness of Oneness with God and each other. This requires that you relinquish fear and replace it with stillness and peace. No matter what form the fear takes, whether it be death, destruction, extreme lack or disease, go within. Be still and let the Divine spiritual impulses from God keep you in the peace and safety you knew before you were “naked”. This is your protection. If you can accept that what you are witnessing “out there” is nothing more than a mental projection on the screen of your consciousness, you can then resist the temptation to become so fearful that you fight and battle what is nothing more than a movie, a projection of light and shadow intended to frighten you. Simply close your eyes, turn within and refuse to watch and react any more.

THE TRUE NATURE OF GOD AND THE NON-POWER OF EVIL

The Book of Revelations in your Bible has perhaps been the most widely read description of the events which are to take place, although there numerous references to it in many ancient and current writings. For the most part, however, the mystical language used makes what is to occur sound terrifying...the wrath of God unleashed on a rebellious and sinful world. Let's take the time now to contemplate the nature of God because as long as you hold on to the superstitious notion of an angry, judgmental Supreme Being, you will be fearful.

God, being Infinite and the All That Is, cannot truly be described as that would be an attempt to limit the Unlimited and make finite the Infinite. However, God CAN BE EXPERIENCED! Those humans who have experienced the presence of God you call "enlightened", "saints" or "masters". However, EVERY individual has within themselves that Presence which can be experienced. While it is true that God is no respecter of persons since all are One, God does reveal His presence in a manner that feels personal to the individual. It is essentially "indescribable"...beyond the limitations of human words and thoughts. However, there are certain unmistakable attributes of God that all those who have had the experience have tried to convey. Some of these are: Omnipresent (All Present, Allness, All That Is), Omniscience (All Knowing, All Wisdom, All Intelligence), Omnipotent (All Power, the Only Power), Love, Bliss, Oneness, Peace, Father, Mother. Certainly, there are many more. The point we wish to convey is that no one who has experienced God has described Him as angry, judgmental, full of wrath and condemnation, willing to inflict pain and suffering on His erring children. No such God exists!

Contemplate that if God is "All That Is" and the "Only Power", how is evil the dominate power in your current experience? If you accept that God is the Only Power, why are you warring against terror, against evil? To be sure, there is no doubt that you are experiencing evil, unimaginable evil at that. But it is NOT A POWER, NOT TO BE FEARED, NOT TO EVEN BE ACKNOWLEDGED ANY MORE!

You may think this is impossible given your current situation, but it is your only hope and must not only be accepted into your consciousness, but practiced every time the suggestion of evil is presented to you. Just as Light dispels the darkness, so too will your conscious acknowledgment of the non-power of evil dispel the fear and presence of whatever evil is appearing. Never forget that there is only ONE POWER, God, and anything appearing to the contrary is illusion, a mental picture being projected onto the fabric of the collective human consciousness. You must use your knowledge of the Truth of One Power to bring Light to dispel the shadowy image of evil. In the presence of God, there is no evil!! How do you get God to be present? Through your consciousness, through Silent Prayer as we will instruct you.

Humanity must form a collective Divine Army... not to defend against evil, since its' "nothingness" requires no defense, but to dissolve it by simply rejecting the belief that God could possibly have an opposite. Collectively, you are "The Light of the World" and that Light is your safety and protection in these troubled times. Under all fearful circumstances we admonish you to turn on the Light so that the evil shadow disappears. If you remain fearful, you are empowering your belief that evil is real. Stand still under all fearful circumstances, acknowledge God as the only power, yourself as Divine Being and then behold the power of God embracing you and protecting you. This is essential!

Practice keeping yourselves in a state of calm, silence and peace as often as possible. Always you must hold to the admonition of "Peace...Be Still and Know that I Am God." You must exercise extraordinary faith that in the presence of God, evil is not a power and therefore cannot function in your experience. You have much to gain by remaining in the Silence and practicing the Presence of God within you.

PRACTICE SILENT PRAYER

If after reading this thus far you have accepted this communication as a loving guide from God to His children on earth and have chosen to evolve, you must commit yourselves to working with us to the best of your abilities. This is an enormous endeavor for human beings to undertake at a time when your world is spiraling into chaos. However, you cannot afford to be complacent and assume that life will continue as you have been experiencing it. Enormous upheavals and destruction will occur soon and YOU MUST PREPARE YOURSELVES.

First, as we mentioned before, you must realize that God can only function through human consciousness! Just as you may be surrounded by electricity, it is useless unless there is the appropriate conduit and initiative is made to connect to it. So too, as we have stated, God is Omnipresent, but you must open your consciousness and connect to It. You do this through SILENT prayer! We will instruct you below on how this is to be done.

The time has come when you must cease engaging in useless petitioning prayer where strangely you think you can inform an All Knowing Creator of some need and hope that if you are “good” enough or sacrifice something your wish will be granted. Does this sound absurd to you? Silent Prayer requires that you “be still and know that I Am God”, listen for God to speak to you!! Accept the Truth that you are Divine Being, God incarnate. Can God withhold anything from Itself? Contemplate God and reflect on the TRUE nature of God, not the superstitious god inflicted on you through false teachings. “Acknowledge Him in all thy ways” as stated in your Bible. Your ability to survive the onslaught of evil occurring on earth right now depends on this! You MUST acknowledge your Divinity by opening your consciousness to God as the Only Power and let that Power perform Its function as your safety and protection. As stated in Isaiah 26:3, “You will keep him perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on You, because he trusts in You.”

Practice the Presence of God daily through Silent Prayer so that when the events which are about to occur unfold, YOU WILL NOT REACT! Peace be still! Fear not and let the Light of God go forth from you lifting you and those within your range of consciousness above the chaos and darkness.

Silent Prayer requires nothing more than your sitting comfortably in a quiet area. Keep your spine straight as this helps the flow of spiritual energy. It is helpful to close your eyes to avoid visual distractions. Check to see that your body is relaxed and use deep, slow breathing to further calm you and cleanse you. Acknowledge your intention to commune with God and open your consciousness to receive His

Light. When thoughts occur, do not focus on them, but rather let them stream through without your attention. Remind yourself often that you intend to LISTEN for the inner, still, small voice, God. Be patient and do not judge yourself if you do not have an obvious experience of God's Presence. Your active intention ensures that you are receiving His Light. Also, during these periods we can actively work to increase your vibrational level. You may experience certain physical sensations such as warmth or tingling. Some may even experience what feels like intense sexual energy as your spiritual centers or chakras become stimulated and this energy rises up along the spine. Whether you experience any sensations at all is quite inconsequential since it is the active intention of engaging in this Silent Prayer that is of the utmost benefit to you. It would also be of even greater benefit if you could perform this in groups. Family members can designate certain periods of the day to pray or meditate together. This increases the vibrational field within which we must work and makes for a much more efficient process. You MUST come together, dedicate yourselves to this purpose and encourage others to do the same! The length of time should be at least 30 minutes but certainly the longer amount of time you can devote, the more beneficial it will be.

You may also engage in Silent Prayer for minutes at a time throughout the day. When you are not otherwise occupied, turn within, acknowledge God's Presence and listen. While driving, waiting in line or during other periods when you are not particularly active, use these moments as your "spiritual exercise" time rather than being impatient or bored. It will increase your spiritual vibrational level just as physical exercise increases your level of physical well being.

Remember that Silent Prayer is the ONLY way to bring God and God's Light to bear in your human experience on earth! It is absolutely essential that you open your consciousness to receive and benefit by His Divine Light and Presence!

PRACTICE ONENESS THROUGH NON-JUDGMENT

It is imperative that you come together collectively as One in order to empower yourselves and survive until the time of your Awakening. Those of you who are more spiritually advanced must come together, form your Divine Army of One and encourage all to trust you and join with you. United under the banner of God, Light, Love and Peace, you will minimize the fear and trauma of your spiritual rebirth and provide maximum assistance to us and all those eagerly awaiting to lift you above the darkness of this world.

We understand your natural human inclination to want to see yourself as unique and separate from others, but you no longer have the time to continue living at that level of consciousness. Through numerous means being utilized by those in control, your consciousness is being further diminished, not expanded as intended during normal spiritual evolutionary cycles. Religious and racial identity and pride is being extolled as a positive quality and you are being asked to embrace a multi-cultural society that recognizes and emphasizes separateness. You MUST agree to relinquish separateness and replace it with oneness. Your survival will depend on the power you utilize “collectively”. Selfishness must end. You must “love your neighbor as yourself” because your neighbor is your Self...the One Self infinitely expressed.

It is also essential that you not pass judgment on your earthly brothers and sisters who do not join with you and choose to remain behind. You must not condemn or criticize those who appear to be the cause of the death and destruction that will occur. Hold fast to the Truth that regardless of appearances, all are One...all are of God.

The question you must surely have is “How can I see all the violent, corrupt and evil people of the world in the light of Oneness”? “How can I acknowledge my Oneness with despicable human beings?” We emphasize once again that you must make an effort to look beyond the BEHAVIOR of your human brothers and sisters. Many of your spiritual teachers have counseled you to “forgive the sinner, not the sin.” This is essential. Keep in mind that what you are perceiving with your human senses is illusion, sin is illusion. It therefore requires no forgiveness. The so-called sinner is still God. Forgiving the so-called sinner requires nothing more than looking past the illusory appearance and acknowledging the Presence of God. There is nothing but God. No matter how difficult this may be for you, you MUST accept it and act accordingly until your spiritual eyes are opened and you once again see and know this Truth.

We offer you a somewhat simplistic example. Suppose you observed a world where all the adults were experiencing life crawling on hands and knees. You would be startled and immediately think to yourself “why are adults BEHAVING this way, choosing to crawl when they are perfectly capable of standing up, walking and thus experiencing life in a completely new and wonderful way?” “Why are they making life so hard for themselves?” The answer must surely be because they don’t know any better. If they knew they could walk, they would. This is the attitude and awareness you must have when you are tempted to judge another. Rather than condemn them for their inability to walk, take their hand and to the best of your ability, try to lift them up!! Those of you who are more spiritually conscious MUST try your best to lift up those who are still asleep, still ignorant of their true identity. Granted there will be those who despite all effort will choose to stay on hands and knees. It is unfortunate, but all that means is that they have delayed themselves. No one is lost forever. All will awaken in due “time”. This is your time if you so choose.

UFO PHENOMENON AND INVASION

We have mentioned that events will be occurring soon on earth that will require you to accept NOW your Divine Self and step forward fearlessly and collectively in order to rise above the darkness and madness which will envelope the planet. Again, we wish to emphasize that this information MUST be given to you now so that you may prepare yourselves. It is not intended to make you fearful. On the contrary, it is to reassure you that you are Divinely loved and protected if you turn within to that Divinity. We acknowledge that what is to follow will sound impossible to you and absolutely ludicrous to some. Nevertheless, at the risk of losing credibility with some of you reading this, we stand firmly committed to revealing what is to come. Read with your heart and inner intuition rather than your limited and logical human mind.

The earth will soon be visited by alien life forms...en masse. Many of you have suspected that aliens have visited earth many times and are doing so more frequently now. UFO sightings are increasing and your governments are pretending to investigate them. The reason they are pretending is because they not only have had knowledge of alien life, spacecraft and visitations, but are actually working in conjunction with these beings. We assure you that the purpose for this cooperation has nothing to do with benefitting mankind. The purpose is simply to dominate the earth, establish control of the earth, its inhabitants, and its resources. The purpose is to establish a Master/Slave global society which would further imprison humans in a life of misery and toil while those in power enjoy lives of obscene abundance and indulgence. You can see this scenario is already beginning to unfold. The rich and powerful are getting richer and more powerful, the rest are watching their lives being reduced to nothing more than working and paying bills and taxes to support the rich.

Aliens have been among you for some time and soon they intend to violate Divine Cosmic Law and invade the earth. This is with the full endorsement of power-mad humans who have controlled humanity for centuries, from generation to generation. These people are extremely delusional and dangerous. They have been convinced by the aliens that they will share in this new global order of power. They have been lied to and foolishly not only believe this deception, but have offered to be instrumental in bringing it about! However, because this event is in violation of the Divine Cosmic Law, God has authorized his angelic forces to intervene and assist His children on earth. Just as aliens have been among you, so too have God's angelic guardians. We have been preparing for this event and now need you to stand with us. This is the Divine Army we referred to earlier. We need you to wake up and acknowledge God's Presence within you. This will bring the full force of God's Love and Light upon the earth and where there is Light, the darkness of evil dissolves. Can you help us? Are you willing to embrace your true identity as a Son of God and let your collective Light envelope and protect not only yourselves but the earth? We implore you to do so. You will be assisting us immeasurably!

What is this Divine Law that God in His infinite wisdom had decreed for Its Creation that is now being violated? Essentially, it forbids any beings from interfering with the natural spiritual evolution of other beings unless ordained and sanctioned by God. Your earth is still in its infancy in terms of cosmic spiritual evolution and as such has been maintained in what we would describe as a cosmic “incubator”, a vibratory field that has kept you isolated and protected as you “grow” and evolve into conscious realization of your Oneness with God. There are many of these evolutionary worlds at various states and stages of consciousness. Most are more advanced than yours and some are at a lower level. You have experienced life on earth in a “self-conscious” state for quite sometime. You are aware of yourselves as “I, Mary” or “I, Bill” and so on. The evolutionary process to which we refer is not your traditional definition of evolution, that is the theory that all living things change in response to environmental conditions by natural selection of randomly occurring mutations from simple to more complex forms. Since you were created perfect, there is no need to change or improve yourselves. What we are referring to by the word evolution is the gradual recognition of that which already IS. You evolve in stages of awareness from the individual self-conscious Mary or Bill to the One Self-consciousness, I Am God, or simply “I Am”. Because of the events about to occur, you are being given a unique and extraordinary opportunity to experience a quantum evolutionary leap in your awareness from that of individual self to that of the One Self! You are being spared the seemingly endless cycles of birth and death that would normally be necessary in the natural evolutionary process required in order for man to discard the numerous layers of ignorance and false beliefs accepted into his consciousness and to eventually realize his true Divine nature. You are truly being blessed and will realize the magnitude of this blessing when you awaken soon.

The beings who have been observing the earth during this period have determined that they would now like use the earth for themselves, use you as slaves to accommodate their needs and thereby live decadent lives of ease and exploitation. Their actions have triggered a cosmic emergency and God in His infinite Love and Divine Wisdom is using this as an opportunity to speed up your evolutionary process. It is a tremendous opportunity for you and a blessing that we have been granted permission to intervene and help. However, it does require that you help us as well! Do not be seduced by these beings. Hold fast to your faith that we are here and therefore, it is not necessary to put yourselves at the mercy of not only these ill-intentioned aliens, but those in power now on earth. Join together in the Divine

Army of Oneness, Peace, Love and Light. Acknowledge God's Presence and Power so that it may manifest in your experience. Always our admonition to you is "Silent Prayer". In that peace and stillness will you unleash God's power, the Light, which will nullify all evil and discordant appearances. We are asking you to utilize extraordinary faith! Stand together in that faith. You will not be forsaken.

We would also like to address the ecological and geographical upheavals which have already begun and will increase rapidly. While a portion of these occurrences are the result of human ignorance, the majority of them are and will be the result of the extraterrestrials influencing the vibratory field surrounding the earth to create the opening needed to invade the earth. It's a "win/win" situation for them in that by creating these disasters, you will feel impotent to deal with them and in fear and desperation, turn to these "superior beings" for their advanced technological and biological knowledge. While these beings do possess such knowledge, they are not to be considered an "advanced" race! You must resist all temptation to regard them as such.

When you are witnessing anything of a catastrophic nature, immediately acknowledge to yourselves that what you are witnessing is an illusion, intended to frighten you and make you feel powerless. Reject that and quietly acknowledge God...the true God who "made all that was made and saw that it was good." There is no mention in the Bible of God making all that was made and seeing that it was good and evil! Therefore, KNOW THE TRUTH. All evil is illusion since it was never created by God. Stand fearlessly and firmly in this Truth. Why should you fear shadows?

GLOBAL WARMING AND THE GREAT AWAKENING

Humanity is now conscious of the fact that the earth is “warming”. You are embracing the explanation that this is a result of human behavior and environmental abuses. It is not. While you ARE desecrating your home through ignorant and wasteful practices, the global warming is resulting from galactic interference from two sources. One is from the aliens we mentioned and the other is from God.

This is an extraordinary time for humanity. While extraterrestrial forces work to penetrate the vibrational field surrounding the earth, this effort is resulting in stimulating the field, which in turn is experienced as warmth (much like water which when stimulated by fire will begin to boil). This alien activity, however, has also provided the opportunity for God to likewise project an intense beam of Divine Light and energy directly to the children on earth. This energy will be experienced not only physically, but as a direct internal communication to you individually!! This is the joyful moment we referred to earlier. It is the blissful birth in human consciousness of the Truth, God and man are One. You are Divine Being, Eternally One with the Infinite and this Truth will finally be consciously realized on a grand scale!

This is a moment in your evolutionary history that has been eagerly awaited by your Universal spiritual brothers and sisters for eons. It is the Great Awakening. It is the quantum evolution of human beings from mere creatures of the earth to Sons of God! You cannot grasp what wonders and joy are awaiting you! Therefore, you must always keep your thoughts fixed firmly on the birth and not get overwhelmed by the upcoming events, the labor pains. Just as you would humanly endure the physical pain and trauma of birthing a child into the world because of the miracle, love and joy associated with that birth, so too must you endure in peace and full trust that which must precede your spiritual birth. We are here to assist you and feel blessed to do so. You will not go through it alone and therefore have nothing to fear. You are loved more than you can currently comprehend.

SOCIETAL COLLAPSE

There will be significant losses and catastrophes that regrettably humanity will experience en masse. You are already seeing the destruction and collapse of human institutions and societal structure. Education is in turmoil, religious institutions are being revealed as anything but. Gangs, violence, substance abuse and greed are overwhelming humanity. Governments are either impotent and failing or suffocating and abusive. Infrastructures are deteriorating rapidly. In addition, your financial institutions and monetary systems are about to self-destruct as a result of greed and irresponsible practices. Poverty is extreme and a way of life for millions. Your food and water supply are in jeopardy and the entire world is at war.

It is time for you to face the fact that human beings are totally incapable of solving these overwhelming problems at their current level of understanding. You are going to have to raise your consciousness above the self-centered level of human consciousness in order to survive until the time of the Great Awakening. Do not think for a moment that any outside entity is going to come to your rescue. If you place your power and future in the hands of any one other than yourselves, you are in more danger. Every individual that is capable must turn within, access the only power there is, God, and bring that power to bear on humanity collectively.

Many of you are resigned to some sort of “apocalyptic” event occurring signaling the “end of the world”. So what. The world that is ending is a mirage. The world of God’s creation awaits you. This is the “real” world. This is the world you knew and experienced before you followed Lucifer into “his” world, one that accepts a power and selfhood apart from God. No one should cling to this world with its never-ending cycles of good and evil, health and sickness, wealth and poverty, war and peace. Do you not see that you have been experiencing two powers...duality? Can you begin to grasp the truth that such a world is impossible, insufferable and not worthy of your concern any longer? Let it go and keep your thought on the indescribable world of God’s creation...the Real world. Let go of all the fear, pain and suffering this world has given you. Soon you will awaken to your true identity and marvel that you valued what was so valueless and gave meaning to a world that was completely meaningless. Know with certainty that what God created is like Itself, immortal, eternal and CANNOT be destroyed.

In the “end” all that will remain of this world is the evil and those who once again will have chosen to forsake their Divinity and remain separate from God. Evil will eventually simply destroy itself since it is not of God and therefore CAN be destroyed. Having no other recourse, it will turn against itself much as cancer cells when they are no longer able to feed off healthy cells turn and attack themselves causing their own destruction. Hopefully you can see now why no effort on your part or God’s part is necessary and why it is essential that you resist the temptation to battle it or pray for God to take action on your behalf. You must remain at peace which will enable you to simply be lifted above it. Those who choose to remain will sadly suffer immensely and tragically delay their inevitable awakening and return to their true spiritual identity and the world of God's creation. Being One, All must return eventually. This is the only purpose for "time" in your experience on earth since in Reality there is only the blissful state of the Eternal "Now". No past to mourn or regret, no future to fear, only the joy of Eternal Being.

EDUCATIONAL CRISIS

It is quite obvious that your educational systems are in turmoil and decline. There are numerous and complex reasons for this. We will briefly address the issue only to reassure you that even though it will eventually break down and collapse due to incompetence, conflicting social and political agendas as well social inequality and unrest among the world's youth, its eventual demise is necessary and not to be feared.

Today's public education for young children has been and will continue to be concerned with stifling creativity and independent thought in order to program children to think of education as something necessary to secure a job. They are in basic training so to speak for the army of workers that will be required in the future to serve the rich and powerful. Programs geared toward this type of training are implemented under the guise of "concern and compassion" for all children. Titles such as "No Child Left Behind" are used to convince administrators, teachers and parents of the altruistic nature of a government sponsored curriculum that is anything but! Many of you are awakening and seeing this sham for what it truly is and yet you are powerless to change it since it is "the law" and tied into the funding necessary to keep public schools functioning.

The tireless efforts of dedicated parents, teachers and volunteers to bring the arts and creativity back into the educational process is admirable and speaks volumes about the dedication of those who value intuition, beauty and the joy of self-expression and are committed to instilling and stimulating these qualities not only in their own children, but others as well. Nevertheless, even this will become more difficult as campuses become more dangerous and off limits to all but school personnel and security guards. Parents will eventually refuse to send their children into this type of environment...many already do. The private schools will be unaffordable for the majority and leave parents and children without access to education. Turmoil and collapse is inevitable but you should resist violence and trying to "fight the system." Such a system needs to be abolished.

We would urge you to peacefully, intelligently and lovingly come together collectively. Do not be concerned about your children not being educated and indoctrinated by a government controlled institution. Use your time together as a family to practice Silent Prayer. You may also "home school" children in your family or in larger groups until the time of The Great Awakening. At that moment, being once again restored to your Divine Oneness with God, you will all have access to Omniscience, All Knowledge, and you will rejoice that there is no longer anything to learn!

THE UPCOMING FINANCIAL AND MONETARY APOCALYPSE

Let's address the hypnotic suggestion you have embraced that you need money to survive and you must work hard to get the money and then must hoard it and bequeath it to your relatives. Who came up with idea of "money" and giving worthless pieces of paper such value that you are willing to die for it? Who originally came up with this concept and told you that you now had to work, either for yourselves or someone else to get this money? You don't know and have blindly accepted it as a fact of life because your parents told you so, their parents told them so, and their parents' parents said that's just the way it's always been. In fact, it dates back to ancient societies who utilized shells, spices, oils or whatever they deemed valuable. It was nothing more than a hypnotic suggestion given to the collective human consciousness in such a subliminal manner that you were completely unaware of where this concept came from and yet you believed it! You have been living under this false belief since you lost your "Garden of Eden" state of consciousness. Who do you suppose originated this lie?

Your Bible describes life for humanity once it was lived outside the "Garden". Now humans had to "toil" to survive and painful birth was necessary to bring forth children in human bodies rather than spiritual bodies. God didn't decree this! What loving parent would treat his children so heartlessly and cruelly? If a loving HUMAN parent would not inflict such torture on its erring child, surely the ultimate love of God for His children would not allow it! Remember that all your suffering is self-inflicted because of your belief that you are separate from God and therefore cut off from Life and your Source. How will you now survive? You have sacrificed your Divine inheritance and Infinite supply and have been dreaming that you can maintain and sustain yourselves. Lucifer knew you would be bewildered and cleverly set in your consciousness the concept of work ("toil"). By accepting this survival method, he could thereby convince you that whereas once you had Infinity, now you have finite resources. These resources are essential for your survival in "this/his world". You must work to have them.

A value system had to be created and accepted as well. This was the beginning of humans placing value in external objects. These could then be used to trade for the necessities of life. The concept of money was born and it has enslaved you ever since. Now it is once again going to be used to further enslave you if you so permit.

Do not value money, since it is worthless and only has value because you agreed it did. Change your mind. Impossible? Not if you want to survive. Whereas for eons you thought you needed money to survive, now you must reject this belief in order TO survive. If you cling to wealth and money and thereby empower it to keep you safe, you are doomed because soon there will occur a financial and monetary apocalypse the world has never experienced. The majority of you, rich and poor, will be affected. Rest assured that the powerful in control of your world who are orchestrating this disaster will not be the least bit affected.

One of the greatest scams foisted on humanity was the concept of paying taxes. Originally intended as a temporary method to provide funds to increase national security interests and maintain societal infrastructure, it has evolved into a horrendous and permanent way to rob you of a significant portion of your earnings and insure that hard working, honest people remain overworked and overburdened in order to fund the wishes and desires of corrupt governments and bureaucrats. The waste and fraudulent use of taxpayer money is being exposed daily and yet you continue to work and pay more and more into this illicit system! A governmental agency uses fear and intimidation to keep you from questioning the legitimacy of its very existence thus forcing you to remain subservient and submissive. You are actually funding the wars, violence and chaos sweeping the world with your hard earned money. Don't you feel controlled and manipulated? Do you see how fear is used by the powerful to keep you enslaved and themselves guaranteed an endless source of money to finance their whims and wars? We wish you collectively had the courage to refuse to participate in this insanity any further. However, we recognize that it will unfortunately take the complete collapse of your financial structure to bring about the demise of your system of taxation. Soon, when the majority of you experience an extreme lack of money and your investments are revealed as worthless, there will be no money to ensure your future survival let alone pay taxes. When this occurs, we want you to contemplate who told you that you needed money to survive. Who convinces you that you must EARN a living rather than experience and express Life? We also want you to contemplate Who maintains and sustains His Children if they will turn to Him.

It must occur to you that if the destructive events unfold as we are revealing to you, all human activity will be impacted. If homes are destroyed and millions are displaced or suffer death, who will be concerned about paying mortgages and bills? How will anyone be able to track where anyone is or how much they owe for anything? What good is your life insurance, pension or investments if the agencies responsible for them no longer exist? Please consider these questions NOW so that you can begin to see that money will be worthless and at least you can prepare yourselves to survive without it and not become panicked or fearful.

Since the majority of you spend your lives in servitude to companies and corporations just to collect your salaries to survive, perhaps you will finally wake up and look upon this scenario as a welcome release from the prison of money. If you no longer need it, are you not free? Would you not feel somewhat elated and empowered, knowing that all of humanity is experiencing this with you and all are now on the same level, neither rich nor poor? You will all be as one, needing to come together for your mutual benefit and survival. Do this in love, without fear and without regret for what you thought you were worth. You are about to realize you are worth far more than your bank accounts.

THE DIVINE PRINCIPLE OF INFINITE SUPPLY

We reference your Bible often because despite the fact that it has been intentionally adulterated, it is still the Word of God to His children. Sometimes this Word is direct and obvious and other times it must be pondered and spiritually discerned. Meaning is conveyed to you from within if you are truly seeking to know the Truth.

With regard to your material needs, scripture speaks very plainly and Jesus demonstrated the Truth that God maintains and sustains you if you but turn within, acknowledge God as the Source of all effect, the First Cause, and in total trust and belief, give thanks for that which He provides unconditionally. You do not have to “deserve” it or be worthy. God is no respecter of persons and gives freely to all. How could Jesus take five barley loaves and two small fish and feed the multitudes as much as they wanted with 12 baskets left over? He demonstrated the God given Principle of Infinite Supply. In Luke 12:29-32, Jesus admonishes you as follows: “And do not seek what you should eat or what you should drink, nor have an anxious mind. For all these things the nations of the world seek after, and your Father knows that you need these things. But seek the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added to you. Do not fear, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom.” He is plainly telling you the Truth. God, the Life of you, maintains and sustains Itself. This requires you to lift your consciousness from that of human concepts of life and survival to spiritual consciousness that now acknowledges the One Life, God, expressing as all individual Life and therefore sustaining that Life.

Because of what will soon appear to be dire lack, whether of money, food, water or anything necessary in your life, it is essential that you raise your human consciousness to spiritual consciousness (the kingdom within) so that the power of God may function in your experience and appear as loaves and fishes or whatever the particular need may be. You will then be utilizing the Divine Principle of Infinite Supply as Jesus tried to teach humanity thousands of years ago but was unsuccessful since the people of his time could not comprehend this teaching. Because of the Light and energy being directed to the earth, enough of you will open your consciousness to receive this Light, be lifted into spiritual awareness and thus demonstrate this Principle to provide all that is necessary until the instant of your Great Awakening and ascension. It is imperative to practice going within, Silent Prayer, and listening for the voice of God. The more of you who prepare in this way, the greater the Light can function and provide for all.

Never forget that all effects have their origin in Cause, and you must turn to that Cause. Do not continue putting your faith in the effects...money in particular. It will not be there to save you. God, the First and Only Cause, will be if you but seek within and not without.

SPIRITUAL HEALING

By now you must see that everything we are telling you and everything we are asking you to do is in complete opposition to the way you have been taught and thus living as human beings. You must also see that the way you have been living is no longer sustainable, no longer even desirable and therefore requires this dramatic shift. Are you willing? You may think it impossible, but it is not and we are working along side you. You will not fail if you make the commitment and effort.

We must educate you now regarding spiritual healing as opposed to your understanding of healing, one that relies on effects such as doctors, hospitals and prescription drugs. Many of you are awakening to the fact that you have been victims of a enormous scam called “health insurance”. You have been told that you MUST have health insurance and pay dearly for it. So many of you keep yourselves imprisoned in a meaningless job just to hold on to it! Who convinced you that you must insure yourselves to protect your finances and assets in the event you contract a disease, become ill or fall victim to an accident? Who convinced you to pay exorbitant amounts of money “just in case” you need medical attention? Who controls the health care system that scams you in this manner and why do you continue to allow yourselves to be victimized by it? Do you find it astounding that those controlling the system are using your fear to make obscene amounts of money and yet you willingly participate? Wake up! It would be marvelous if you all had the courage to drop all insurance and refuse to be scammed any longer. Yet, we see you are so hypnotized that you believe it is necessary and important. Utter nonsense. Most of you have paid more for the insurance than actual medical attention would cost! Not only this, but all of you are deliberately being exposed to elements designed to make you sick, i.e., chemicals in your drinking water, toxins and pollutants in your air, additives and pesticides in your food supply just to name the obvious examples. The less obvious examples involve deliberate covert biological, chemical and germ warfare being waged on unsuspecting victims which will result in global epidemics. This should not be surprising to read since you already know how you are being controlled in other areas of your life. By keeping you sick you are being kept in fear thus making you weak and easily exploited.

The time has come to change your thoughts about health and healing. Make no mistake...all disease is illusion and you experience it because of your belief in a life and selfhood separate from God. Spiritual healing is the result of one who has raised their consciousness to the point where God is recognized and acknowledged to be the only Power and can therefore look at a “patient” and dissolve the appearance of “disease” by bringing this Truth to bear on whatever claim is being made. There have been numerous documented cases of this type of healing, but most of you remain skeptical and prefer to cling to the soon to be useless concept of physical healing...doctors, hospitals and drugs which are more dangerous to your body than the actual illness. You are being asked now to turn away from a belief system that not only does not serve you now, but will certainly not serve you when catastrophic events occur which will seem to threaten your physical survival.

Remember, and we must keep reiterating this, what God created cannot be destroyed! Rest assured that if God created disease, it could never be cured! Since disease can and has been cured, it is not of God, not a power to be feared or “battled” as you so often refer to your attempts to heal. You don’t need to “battle” or fight an illusion! Can you begin to grasp this important Truth?? Let it into your consciousness and begin to lift yourselves into a higher understanding of who you are.

In Genesis it states that you were given dominion over the earth and all that is in it. Why? Because you are God in individual form and therefore the only Power operating in your experience...IF YOU SO CHOOSE! With absolute knowledge of this Truth, how then could anything external have any effect on you? It would not and could not. This Truth is going to be your strength and protection. Since you have been experiencing life without knowing this Truth, you have again been giving power to effect, not Cause. In this case, the power appears to be in germs, toxins, bacteria and anything that you now fear threatens your physical body. Jesus admonished you “Turn ye and live.” Stop empowering the powerless, turn within, acknowledge God as your Cause and Source and reclaim your Divinity...your Life eternal not subject to the illusion of sickness or even death. Jesus demonstrated this Truth countless times, not only healing but actually raising the dead; and certainly not to show off the fact that HE was the one and only Son of God and could therefore perform “miracles”. Everything Jesus did was to teach you the Truth about yourselves!! Yet you still refuse to believe it. The time has come where you now MUST believe it. Did Jesus not say to you “know ye not that ye are gods?” and “These things and greater you shall do.”? Why do you continue to cling to the belief that you are unworthy, sinful human beings subject to all manner of horrific suffering? Release this concept of yourselves and embrace your Divinity. Those of you who succeed in this will be of tremendous benefit to your brothers and sisters who may not be able to grasp that this is the Truth about them. You will also be a tremendous benefit to us as we prepare you to Awaken and ascend.

DEATH

With the increasing geographical and climatic upheavals, large numbers of human beings will experience death. It is of utmost importance that we address this and try to inform you and reassure you about so-called death. We understand how terrifying this experience is to you. Avoiding death at all costs is the primal instinct of human consciousness. You still regard the body as “you” and despite teachings to the contrary you have no conscious memory of the fact that you are spiritual beings incapable of death.

Your invisible consciousness provides the vibrational energy that not only forms your body, but maintains and sustains it! This is your true Self that you have forgotten, God, and so have become to believe that you are the body itself. You have severed the communication with your Self, God, and have created a personal selfhood, the ego, to now maintain and sustain you. Being a creation not of God, the ego has no real existence, no power to maintain and sustain you. You are as your Bible stated, “as a branch that is cut off and withers and dies”. Because of this, your bodies age, wither and die. However, YOU don’t die since you are an Eternal Son of God, God individualized and yet One. You must contemplate this Truth! You will actually awaken and experience it at the moment of the Great Awakening. However, the reason this is of utmost importance for you to understand beforehand is that when hearing the information we are conveying, we realize you will immediately begin to have fear and concern for yourselves, your children and all your loved ones. Fear not. You will never be separated from each other since your relationship is Eternal and bound in the Truth of Oneness. Just as you will be safe and protected and lifted above the darkness, so too will all your loved ones...even those who appear to have “died”. It will not matter if you are physically together at this quantum shift and evolution into Life in a new and higher dimension, one of inexplicable beauty and joy. You will be together consciously in your original Divine form. Imagine that you will be waking up from a nightmare and looking around to see that you are totally safe and surrounded by all those you love.

The point we wish to emphasize is that you must rethink who you are and who your family members are. All are equally One, God individualized. It would be extremely beneficial if you could attempt to educate them with this information. The less fear and anxiety you have, the more efficiently this process will occur.

The time has come for you to no longer fear death since you must now see it as simply a step or stage of progress from one state of awareness, mortal and finite, to another, immortal and infinite. Physically, the birth experience is more traumatic for you than the death experience and yet strangely you celebrate birth and fear and mourn death. Is it possible for you to now reverse this? You must contemplate what we are saying here because by releasing the need to identify and cling to this particular physical body, you are freeing yourselves to experience your true form, your perfect spiritual body. As absurd as this may sound to you, can you train yourselves to regard death as a POSITIVE experience? Will you be able to stop mourning and holding candlelight vigils for your deceased brothers and sisters that you perceive as “victims” and instead rejoice that they are finally free of the prison of a false and unworthy body...one that suffers sickness, pain, aging and eventual death just to be recycled in the earth like human garbage? We can assure you that they are alive, safe and anxious to reunite with you when you also leave “this world” whether by ascension or death.

Look upon the upcoming events without fear or regret. Soon you will no longer live as children of the earth but as Children of God in a world worthy of your Divinity where death is no longer remembered since it is no longer necessary. Contemplate the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. He demonstrated the truth about YOU, not just himself as the Son of God. He is as alive today as he was 2,000 years ago and at the time of the Great Awakening, you will see him. He will be rejoicing with you as this was his purpose since “time” began for humanity. All of your spiritual teachers will be present for this incredible moment to share in your awakening joy. What awaits you is indescribable. Keep your thoughts on this and hold fast to the truth that whatever apocalyptic events occur, they are nothing more than reasons to let go of your attachment to this world. Nobody really dies.

MEDIA CONTROL THROUGH DECEPTION

You cannot afford to fall deeper asleep by indulging in the mindless and increasing distractions being fed to you through your media and electronic devices! Don't think for a moment that those in power want you to wake up. They are currently aware of what is to come and are desperate to keep you distracted and thereby unprepared. To those of you who are already awakening, this is ridiculously obvious and you simply cannot understand those who are spending their lives connected to their cellphones, i-pods, big-screen TVs, blackberries, computers and the like. These "toys" are the weapons being used by those in power to war against your Spirit and prevent your spiritual evolution. It is essential that these devices be used only as a necessity not as a way of life! In addition to keeping you unconscious of their evil intentions, they disrupt your individual and collective vibrational fields creating overwhelming "static" which they are using as a shield against us in our efforts to help you. We implore you to turn them off voluntarily and send the message that you choose to evolve, not remain as creatures to be controlled and used by them!

It is no surprise to any of you that your television networks, most radio stations and print media are being consumed by so-called "media moguls". As more and more control is bought up by a select few, you are seeing the obvious results. You are simply being shown images and told stories disguised as "news" to keep you uniformed of the truth, unaware of what is actually happening in the world. You are constantly being fed with information to keep you fearful and unable to make intelligent decisions whether political or personal. Those of you who are beginning to awaken find this incredulous. The institutions established to educate and uplift humanity are now being used to keep the masses ignorant, fearful and completely hypnotized. Many of the images being presented as factual, real life occurrences have been manipulated and computer generated to fit the agenda of those in control. Serious investigative reporting is being replaced with celebrity gossip and entertainment "news". Have you noticed the number of true and dedicated journalists being killed or otherwise threatened into silence?

Currently you have access to the truth via your computer and the internet. As this technology becomes more affordable and accessible to the mass of humanity, be prepared to see it eventually owned, regulated and completely controlled by those in power just as they control all your communication mediums. At some point, you will be forced to "unplug" yourselves and communicate directly with one another. Even this will become more and more difficult as the controlling entities monitor your every move. More and more cameras and tracking devices are being installed presumably to keep you "safe". In fact, they will be used to keep you "in line". We realize this scenario sounds either improbable to you or disturbingly true.

Nevertheless, you need to prepare yourselves now.

Commit yourselves to coming together as One with the sole purpose of receiving God's Divine energy. You will find that you will reawaken your latent spiritual faculties and senses. These can be used to communicate telepathically and for the more spiritually advanced enable you to actually perform what will appear to many as "miracles". Know with certainty that anyone who awakens to their true Divine nature will have the ability to override the physical laws governing "this world" and utilize Divine laws, which in turn will allow you to accomplish the miraculous. You will have access to infinite supply of any nature and simply be able to defy the laws of time and space. Many of you will no longer require food as you will be directly sustained by Divine energy and will not need to utilize the physical process of deriving that energy from external sources. There is documented testimony of a few so-called "saints" who are currently living on direct cosmic energy. While not all will be able to achieve this level of spiritual consciousness due to an unfortunate lack of time, enough will step forward to provide for all. Never forget that we are here and we will also be assisting you. Remind yourselves once again of all that Jesus was able to accomplish and his statement that "these things and greater you shall do." Have unshakable faith and step forward fearlessly in service to all until the moment you are lifted up from the darkness.

LEGAL JUSTICE

Perhaps some of you reading this cannot accept the possibility of such abuse and loss of freedom. You may think you are protected through your legal and judiciary systems. Pay more attention to what is happening to these “honorable” professions and institutions. The majority of lawyers today are now considered loathsome and greedy. They have manipulated the law and its intention to not only suit their needs and make obscene amounts of money, but to instill fear and intimidation in everyone. You are forced to comply with endless laws and restrictions to avoid being sued. Many of you are sued for breaking laws you never knew existed. Others are threatened with lawsuits and financial ruin unless they agree to comply with the demands of lawyers and their “clients”. If you agree to “settle”, oftentimes the lawsuit will be dropped. Either way, you are all living in fear of the law and the legal system. How is this honorable? The entire legal system has become so complex that attorneys are a necessity and as such, they can charge as much as they feel they are entitled. In most cases, the client receives very little and has been nothing more than someone to be used and exploited for money. Hopefully, you can see that your legal system has become another way to manipulate and control you.

Those in the system who may still strive to serve on the side of justice will discover that the courts and judges will have less interest in following the letter of the law than in following their own agendas and personal interpretations of the law. Those with judicial power will eventually be either loyal to political ideologies and parties or to others with money and power. Rulings will be made not in the interest of justice or the law, but in the interest of the judge making the ruling. As more and more judges are deliberately being installed to rule in favor of those already controlling you, we can assure you that your individual and collective legal recourse will eventually be impossible. Never forget that all of this will be done under the guise of protecting your interests and your safety. Below is one example of how subtly you are being “reprogrammed” to conform and mindlessly obey directives issued by your so-called justice system.

Probably all of you have received a “Summons to Appear for Jury Duty”. You have no freedom of choice in this matter. You have been “ordered” to appear and serve. While a few may cite specific reasons for being unable to serve, the majority of you must fulfill this obligation or suffer the consequences. You can be fined or even arrested for failure to appear. You have been told that this is your “civic duty” and it is an honorable form of community service being imposed on you simply because there are insufficient volunteers to deal with the overcrowded criminal and legal justice system. This is nonsense as it would be much for efficient and cost effective to simply create an agency that employs full time, salaried jurors. Nevertheless, the current system was declared and now you are being threatened if you do not comply with their demand. You are being forced to sacrifice your time and often money at the command of your judicial system. At the very least, this itself should be considered illegal. No one should be forced to participate in passing judgment on the guilt or innocence of another. The fact that the majority of you DO comply with your Summons is a reflection of how the masses can be indoctrinated to follow commands. While seemingly harmless and disguised as a “good deed” and “community service”, the truth is that you have been essentially “put under arrest” until you agree to serve. Because you are so hypnotized and not paying attention, you are missing the bigger picture. If you meekly agree to this process, what makes you think that something even more sinister will not be implemented in the very near future that requires you to submit and comply or suffer even more dire consequences? At some point, even the most skeptical among you must admit that you can now be forced to do something you do not want to do and you have no legal recourse because it is being done legally. We urge you to begin now to prepare for all that is to occur. Heed the advice being urgently and lovingly given to you. Do not dwell on the negative and accept that you are powerless, but begin to awaken and access your individual Power within. You must empower yourselves collectively.

There will always be many among you who are courageous and willing to rebel against suppression of freedom and civil liberties. Pictures of crowds of protestors around the world flood your media daily. These will obviously intensify as more of you become active for what will seem like endless causes. Many will sacrifice their lives for justice. Do not mourn them, but rather smile and know that they will soon be eternally free, as will you. We would like to remind you that the battle is no longer “out there”. The battle must be relinquished and replaced with an inner peace based on the absolute faith in the Power of God within you. Outward protests and demonstrations will eventually only have the effect of justifying military and police force and the result will be detention, imprisonment and even death. Justice in this world has been “redefined” and you must not expect to find it serving you or saving you.

THE PHYSICAL EXPERIENCE OF DIVINE ENERGY

We would like to address the physical aspect of what is to occur so that this foreknowledge can be utilized to minimize any shock or fear you might experience. Your physical bodies are the vehicles you use to express and experience Life in the third dimension of Creation, the earth. They are composed of the elements of the earth, but are primarily water. When water is stimulated by increasing energy (vibration), it transforms into steam and is physically experienced as heat. The Light and vibrational energy which will be transmitted to earth will stimulate the water in your cellular structure and be felt as extreme heat. You may feel as though you are “on fire” for a few days. Allow it to be without fear or concern but rather with rejoicing and gratitude because you know you are being “reborn” as a Spiritual Son of God. To further reassure you, know that your Bible in particular has many examples of this process occurring. You call it ascension and Jesus is perhaps the one with whom you are most familiar who demonstrated it. It will be extremely beneficial for you to hold Him in your consciousness during this physical transformation as your guide. In order to live in a higher dimension, your bodies must resonate with that particular vibration. It will feel strange to you, but know that this process occurs in all evolutionary cycles in perfect accord with God’s Divine Plan. By holding Jesus in your consciousness you will be merging with his energy thereby facilitating your transformation.

We encourage you to pay more attention to your bodies. Keep yourselves clean outside as well as inside. Make dietary changes that are positive and will increase your physical energy and vibrations. Avoid toxic substances to the best of your ability. Commit to simple daily exercise such as walking for at least 30 minutes. It is not our intention to encourage you to be healthy as much as it is to assist us as we work to raise your vibrational levels. The more you do to prepare physically, the more efficiently this process can occur.

Once your physical bodies have been transformed, we are prepared to literally “lift” you up above the darkness of the earth. The spiritual transports which will be utilized are already in the earth plane and because they are vibrating at a higher rate than your physical eyes can perceive, they are currently invisible to you. These were seen by the prophet Ezekiel and described in the Bible as “Wheels”...“a wheel in the middle of a wheel”. You will also see them when your individual vibrations have been raised. Your spiritual eyes will be opened and you will rejoice to recognize and remember your spiritual brothers and sisters who will be there to help us. It will be the most remarkable and wondrous experience for you. By this time, fear will be nonexistent among you and only joy and bliss will be felt as at long last the nightmare of separation will have ended for you. Not a trace of remembrance of the hell you have been experiencing for millenniums will remain. You will no longer “sleep” and dream the impossible, but will be as you were at the beginning of Creation, a perfect child of God. While you have never been otherwise in Reality, you will now be restored to the awareness of what you always were and always will be. This is the “Death of Mortality”, for you will now experience Life as God intended...Immortal Beings experiencing God’s perfect Creation. Remind yourselves of these words often and they will put you in a more uplifted emotional state of being, which also raises your vibrational level thereby assisting us even more.

THE END OF TIME

The final chapter in your Bible is the Book of Revelations. This is because it is the final Word of God to His children on earth. When the world of illusion ends and all who choose to awaken evolve into a higher consciousness, it will no longer be necessary to have prophets reveal the Word of God to you. You will have direct communication with God and once again be restored to your Divine relationship of Oneness. There will no longer be “good and evil”, only good, God. Can you imagine living Life in that state of awareness? Can you imagine experiencing Life without pain, suffering, sin, sickness, disease, lack of any kind and lastly “death”? This awaits you if so you choose. The Bible will no longer be the Word of God for you, it will be a useless book of dreams that never occurred in Reality, only in the world of illusion.

You are now in the final chapter of the Bible and rather than fear or dread what must occur, rejoice that you will no longer be imprisoned...dreaming nightmares of endless cycles of birth and death with all its inherent fear and suffering. Hold fast to this Truth as you work to prepare yourselves for what is to come. It is thankfully the “end times”...the end of time and the beginning of the blissful Life of Eternity. You will be reunited and rejoicing with all those who shared in your journey through hell and back into Heaven. You are immeasurably loved and soon this is all you will remember because love is All That Is...the Eternal Love of God for His Creation, a Love that binds you together as One Eternally.

SUMMARY CHECKLIST IN PREPARATION FOR THE GREAT AWAKENING

If you choose to awaken and evolve into your original higher consciousness at the time of The Great Awakening, it is ESSENTIAL that you take the following steps to prepare yourselves:

1. Acknowledge your Divinity and embrace your Oneness with God and every individual. You must agree to relinquish all religious and racial identity currently being emphasized to create a sense of separation and replace it with Oneness.
2. Regardless of appearances or behavior, DO NOT JUDGE OR CONDEMN ANYONE. Choose instead to look through the appearance and acknowledge the Truth...ALL are Divine spiritual children of God. ALL are equal. ALL are One.
3. Come together COLLECTIVELY to form a Divine Army of One. Commit to remaining calm, peaceful and loving under ALL circumstances. Commit to being the Light of the World and working together to dispel the darkness until the moment of your awakening,
4. Agree to relinquish fear and replace it with stillness and peace. Refuse to react to the illusion of evil.
5. PRACTICE SILENT PRAYER individually and preferably in groups. Do this daily for no less than 30 minutes. Also, practice Silent Prayer throughout the day when you have moments of non-activity. Contemplate the true nature of God as Omnipresence and LISTEN for God to speak to you. Remember that Silent Prayer is the ONLY way to bring God into your experience. This is your safety and protection until the time of The Great Awakening.
6. You must attempt to lift your consciousness from that of human concepts of life and survive to spiritual consciousness that now acknowledges the One Life, the One Power, God, expressing as all individual life and therefore sustaining that life. Do not acknowledge or fear the appearance or suggestion of lack of any kind.
7. Relinquish your concepts and fear of death. Release the instinctive need to identify and cling to this particular physical body. Accept the Truth that nobody really dies.
8. It is extremely important that you stop indulging in mindless distractions through the use of your electronic devises, cellphones and the like. You must “unplug” yourselves voluntarily so that we may work with your individual vibrational field and not be subjected to the constant “static” these create which surrounds you and in turn blocks us preventing us from being able to fully assist you.

9. Pay more loving attention to your bodies. Make dietary and other changes so that the process of transforming your vibrational levels will occur more efficiently. Attempt to stay emotionally uplifted as well. Do not dwell on negative events but focus on the infinite love and joy you will soon experience.

10. Have extraordinary faith and know that we are here, you are not alone, and we are lovingly committed to assisting you in your spiritual rebirth.

PERSONAL NOTE FROM THE TRANSCRIBER

It is important that I attempt to clarify that I am not the author of this book. My contribution is nothing more than that of a transcriber. The contents of this book were essentially “downloaded” into my consciousness by these angelic beings and I simply typed the words. Therefore, I am unable to comment on the validity of what is being presented. What I can comment on is the incredible love and concern they have for us. The energy I experienced was so caring and compassionate that I actually looked forward to sitting at the computer for hours typing...something I usually avoid as much as possible. Because of this overwhelming sense of their presence and their extraordinary desire to help us during these tumultuous times, I am inclined to take this information seriously. It is not easy to do.

While the title of the book is The Death of Mortality, I see it as also referring to the death of the human ego, our false sense of ourselves that we have invested our entire lives nurturing and strengthening. What will be left when that identity is taken away? Personally, I don't know and it's obviously somewhat unnerving. I can see why we are being asked to demonstrate extraordinary trust and faith that all will end well for us and we will be rejoicing. However, until that time, until our collective awakening as they refer to it, it seems we have an insurmountable task before us...one that will definitely require Divine intervention and help. Quite frankly, I doubt anyone believes we are heading towards a bright and promising future and therefore, making the choice to leave all that we thought we were and all that we thought was important and take the leap of faith we're being asked to take seems reasonable. I'm not seeing too many other options at this point.

I also believe events are going to occur that we are simply not prepared to deal with and that the time to do so is not in some distant future, but NOW as they are encouraging us. We cannot afford to be complacent and assume our lives will continue on unaffected by world events. I personally do not want to be overwhelmed by fear when something happens, but rather to have the necessary understanding to bring peace and calm to myself and others. I am absolutely willing to join the Divine Army of One that they reference in this book. My concern is that it will be just that...one. Is it possible for the majority of us to willingly let go of our egos, our concern for our individual selves, and come together collectively as children of God as they plead for us to do?

Hopefully, those of you reading this book will do so with an open mind and begin to think “higher” thoughts about who you are and who we are all. Hopefully, your spiritual Self will awaken and you, too, will join humanity's Divine Army of One. I truly believe that together we can be The Light of the World and together we can experience whatever is to occur secure in the love and protection of the angels and God.
